EIGHT PAGES—THREE CENTS

JURY PICKING FOR HICKMAN ENDS IN ROW

Nine Men And Three Women Are Named Tentatively

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27. (AP)—Nine men and three women all in middle life or past, tonight held at least tentative places as jurors in the snafu trial of William E. Hickman, with the prospect that their seats might be made permanent after a legal technicality, injected in the closing minutes today, has been settled Monday morning.

A dispute arose after legal sparring in which both defense and prosecution attempted to pass its challenges. It was the state's turn and District Attorney A. S. Keyes announced that the prosecution passed Jerome Walsh, young barrister from Kansas City, defending the accused slayer of Marian Parker astonished the courtroom by announcing that he accepted the jury as it stood.

Caught unawares, Keyes leaped to his feet and asked permission of Judge J. T. Brubaker to use his remaining challenges, when the trial was resumed Monday, if the state so elected.

Walsh was not content to have the matter rest, however, and as a result of his further argument as to the state's right to exercise its remaining challenges and an attempt to reserve for himself a similar right, the third day of the trial ended with confusion in the minds of many as to just what was the status of those in the jury box.

CHEERING THROGS GREET IRISH HEAD IN PHILADELPHIA

Tells City He Brings Good Will and Affection From Island Over Sea

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27. (AP)—William T. Cosgrave, president of the executive council of the Irish free state, came to Philadelphia today to repay a visit made by Benjamin Franklin to Ireland 150 years ago.

He sat for a moment in the chair once occupied by George Washington and John Hancock, president of the continental congress, and stood with bowed head beside the Liberty Bell in Independence Hall and paid tribute to the spot where American freedom had its birth.

"It is an honor," said President Cosgrave, "to stand in these halls, hallowed with the memories of the sterling and practical patriots who not only proclaimed liberty, but helped to perpetuate its spirit for the world."

"We have come to this historic city bringing a message of peace and good will and affection."

Pointing to a portrait of Benjamin Franklin, Mayor Harry A. Mackey, who accompanied the distinguished visitor and his party to Independence hall, reminded Mr. Cosgrave that Franklin had submitted to the continental congress a plan of confederation and suggested that an invitation be sent to Ireland to join the movement.

Arriving here shortly before noon from Washington, the Irish president was met at the West Philadelphia station of the Pennsylvania railroad by a committee representing the friendly sons of St. Patrick. Escorted by the first city troop, Philadelphia's historic cavalry organization, he and his party were driven through streets lined with cheering crowds to city hall, where they were formally greeted by Mayor Mackey. Later in the afternoon he was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mayor Mackey.

CHICAGO POLICE HEAD BEGINS NEW ASSAULT

Chicago, Jan. 27. (AP)—Crime and the gangsters who perpetrate most of it are in for the greatest drive Michael Hughes, commissioner of police, ever heard of in his life—and that encompasses several decades of police work.

"Gangsters and racketeers must go," was the ultimatum he issued today. "They can no longer live in Chicago."

The "show down" was the aftermath of the bombing of the homes of Charles C. Fitzmorris, city controller, and Dr. William H. Reid, both staunch political associates of Mayor William Hale Thompson.

Mayor Thompson himself was credited with leadership in the investigation of the bombings. The police said that arrests of the guilty were in sight.

TESTIMONY OF BOY IS TAKEN IN HILL CASE

Court To Hear Story Of Arrest From Detective

OTTAWA, Ill. Jan. 27. (AP)—One of eight witnesses at the Hill murder trial today was an 11-year-old boy in a big purple and yellow sweater, decorated with a Boy Scout medal.

Almost in a panic from fright but answering in a clear strong voice, Norman Meyer said he worked August 4 for Mrs. Eliza A. Hill, whose body was found 15 days later buried in the basement of her home in Streator.

He said he stopped his work on the front part of the lawn about 10 o'clock in the morning and returned in the afternoon to find the body in the basement.

Returning shortly, he knocked at the Hill residence again and Harry Hill, whom the state accuses of killing his mother, answered. Harry told the lad he might finish his work, and gave him 50 cents.

Harry drove off in his automobile soon afterwards, Norman testified and told the boy to be sure and look at the fire at the rear of the house before he went home.

In the meantime a patrolman came along and extinguished the flame.

The state contends Mrs. Hill was killed Aug. 4 or 5 and incriminating evidence was burned in the incinerator by Harry.

A point was scored by the prosecution when Judge Joseph Davis ruled that the jury would be permitted to hear the testimony of William Kent, Seattle detective, who questioned Harry at the time of his arrest on the coast. Harry was put on the stand yesterday in the hope of blocking the Kent appearance.

DRY AGENT CONVICTED OF STEALING LIQUOR

NASSAU, NEW PROVIDENCE, Bahamas, Jan. 27. (AP)—C. H. "Pop" Nesle, former United States prohibition agent, today was convicted of receiving stolen property in Colonial supreme court and sentenced to serve a year in prison.

Chief Justice Beatty, in charging the jury said it had been "conclusively proved" that the boat from which liquor was taken was seized by the United States coast guard within the British territorial limit, and "almost as conclusively proved" that Nesle and Larry Christensen, commander of the coast guard boat, who made the seizure were "hand in glove in planning to appropriate the boat's cargo."

Additional charges of larceny and simple larceny in connection with the seizure were dismissed. Nesle declared he was aboard the coast guard craft at the request of Boatswain Christensen to act as pilot, but set up the plea that the liquor found later at his home was taken from another vessel and not the one figuring in the colonial government's charges.

MISSING SMITH GIRL IN GALESBURG, CLAIM

GALESBURG, Ill. Jan. 27. (AP)—Miss Louise Burr, physical educational director of Galesburg high school, reported to the police tonight that a mysterious young woman resembling descriptions of Frances S. John Smith, missing Smith girl, had called at her office today. Miss Burr said the girl spoke with a pronounced eastern accent and would not tell her destination.

"I have stopped here between trains and wanted to see the school," was the excuse the girl gave Miss Burr for calling. The girl appeared to be about 20 years old and said she had graduated from an eastern school.

LINDY GIVEN BIG OVATION IN COLOMBIA

Lands At Bogota At 3 O'clock As He Had Promised

BOGOTA, Colombia, Jan. 27. (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh promised Bogota last night that he would arrive at 3 o'clock today—and made good.

He came from Cartagena, some 400 miles away, over high mountains enshrouded in clouds, past dangerous ravines and through unknown country—one of the most daring flights he has yet made on his present tour. No other plane had ever crossed the ranges to the valley in which the Colombian capital lies—and Lindbergh was on time.

Just as the hands of the clock pointed to the hour of three, the airman swept down on the aviation field of the military school with his cherished companion, The Spirit of St. Louis.

The journey from Cartagena had been completed in six hours, one minute.

There was tremendous enthusiasm among the spectators as he descended from heights far above the mountains and made a perfect landing on the airfield, of which he had been a part.

About fifteen thousand persons had gathered, including high government officials, and members of the diplomatic corps, to greet the flyer at Madrid Field, which is about 20 miles from the capital.

At the moment the plane came to a standstill it was encircled by a detachment from the aviation school, which protected it from the crowds. As Lindbergh stepped from his plane everyone seemed to want to shake his hand, and he was planned to end the formal official welcome which was extended by the ministers of war.

SENATE VOTES TO INVESTIGATE S-4 DISASTER ITSELF

Goes Counter to Coolidge Proposal for Expert Group Probe

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—The Senate, going counter to the recommendations of President Coolidge and previous house action, insisted today that a congressional committee should investigate the sinking of the submarine S-4.

It did so by modifying the house resolution of inquiry to provide for appointment of a group of senators and representatives to investigate the disaster itself, but left in the proposal the provision for a commission, to be named by the president, with the scope of its inquiry limited, however, to a study of safety appliances and salvage methods.

The senate's action brought a quick reaction from the white house. There it was stated on Mr. Coolidge's behalf that, despite the stand taken by a majority of the senators, he believed that an executive commission, such as he had proposed to congress, should go into the question.

This was also the attitude of the house, which recently passed the resolution modified today by the senate.

White house comment on the senate's action was limited to the reiteration of the president's view that he favored an executive commission and no indication was given as to how course Mr. Coolidge would pursue if authorized to name a group whose investigating powers were to be curtailed.

CHICAGO OPERA LOSES $450,000 IN SEASON

CHICAGO, Jan. 27. (AP)—Cold facts and figures mingled with the warmth of feeling expressed only in grand opera tonight when Samuel Insull, president of the Chicago Civic Opera company and builder of public utilities, told 2,000 guarantors of the opera that it would cost them about $450,000 to make up the deficit of the 1927-28 season ending tomorrow.

The setting was at a special performance of the opera company with parts of the Lorelei, Aida, I Pagliacci and Spanish Caprice, a ballet, presented by the guarantors while between productions Mr. Insull delivered his report.

Even though the opera receipts for the current season increased by 8 percent over last year, due to a dozen more performances, Mr. Insull said the guarantors would be called upon to meet 90 percent of the $500,000 guaranty they pledged for the support of the company.

Washington, Jan. 27. (AP)—The consent of congress for Wisconsin and Michigan to construct a free bridge across the Menominee river at Marquette, Wis., tonight was introduced today by Senator Blaine.

PRINCE OF WALES DIVE IS CAUSE OF LAWSUIT

Chicago, Jan. 27. (AP)—There appeared no doubt in a jury's mind that Straightlace was not the horse he was supposed to be so Attorney Morris Townley tonight was awarded a judgment of $2,500 and the frisky horse roos back to its former owner, Mrs. Mary O. Jewell, society woman and horse breeder.

It was the question of whether Straightlace was a frisky horse or Attorney Townley a poor rider that the jury had to decide.

The attorney said he purchased the mount for $2,500 in the belief Straightlace was "so gentle a baby could ride him."

However, he said, he found after being thrown several times that the horse was not only gentle but almost violent.

Mr. Jewell filed a motion for a new trial and a hearing was set for Feb. 4.

MISSISSIPPI FLOOD PLAN HEARINGS TO END TODAY, BELIEF

Missouri Engineer Claims Cairo Not Given Ample Protection

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—The longest and the most comprehensive study of the Mississippi valley's flood problem ever undertaken by a congressional group is expected to be completed tomorrow by the house flood control committee.

Having amassed testimony totaling more than 2,000,000 words from over 300 witnesses, the committee will end hearings that have been in progress for eleven weeks. Although a number of witnesses have yet to be heard, Chairman Reid announced today that he planned to end the public sessions tomorrow.

Among tomorrow's witnesses will be one of the country's leading engineers, John F. Stevens, of South Plains, N. C., former president of the American Society of Civil Engineers and former chief engineer of the Panama Canal. Former Senator William Lorimer, of Illinois, also will be a witness.

The senate commerce committee, which also is considering flood legislation is to continue its hearings next week and will have as its principal witnesses Secretary Hoover, Secretary of War Davis, and Major General Edgar Jadwin, chief of army engineers. Although its sessions began only last Monday, the senate body expects to complete its hearing by the end of next week.

Jadwin Comes Back Dismissed from the witness stand two days ago by Chairman Reid, after a verbal encounter over his failure to answer questions.

SHERIFF MUST SHOW WHY ACOSTA IS NOW BEING HELD IN JAIL

Attorneys Get Writ After One Charge Against Flier Is Dropped

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 27. (AP)—In an effort to obtain release of Bert Acosta, Trans-Atlantic flier, from the New Haven jail, where he is being held on a warrant from New Jersey charging larceny of a plane, his counsel late today obtained a writ of habeas corpus from Judge Walter M. Pickett of the court of common pleas.

The writ summons Sheriff James Geddes to produce Acosta in court tomorrow to show by what right he holds the aviator.

Rocco Ierardi, of Ned Haven, and John H. Gimaldi, of New York, attorneys for Acosta, maintain that the New Jersey warrant charging larceny is not binding on the flier, from whom counsel earlier today had procured release from a five day sentence imposed on him by Sheriff H. C. Harper of Bergen county, New Jersey, and charges larceny of the plane in which he violated the Connecticut aviation laws in flying low over centers of population.

The governor's office today notified the jail that Governor John H. Trumbull had received telegram from Commander Byrd in Chicago, offering to be of any service possible to Acosta, Acosta was Byrd's pilot in the Trans-Atlantic flight of last summer.

IOWA THEATER BURNS Humboldt, Ia. Jan. 27. (AP)—A fire which was started by the explosion of an oil heater in the Strand motion picture theatre here tonight sent several hundred theatre-goers and 24 guests of an adjoining hotel scurrying into the streets and gutted the theatre before it was brought under control.

The crowd left the theatre in orderly fashion and no one was injured.

DEBENTURE IS EXPLAINED BY MICHIGAN MAN

Millers' Chief Raps McNary-Haugen Measure

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—With the week end house recess preventing introduction of the new Ketcham farm relief bill which is backed by the National Grange, the agriculture committee plugged along at its most aggravating problem today and heard the farm bloc favor of the question—the McNary-Haugen bill—assailed as unsound and unsafe by former Representative Sydney Anderson of Lanesboro, Minn., who appeared as president of the Millers National federation.

Representative Ketcham, of Michigan, a Republican member of the agriculture committee, said tonight that his export debenture bill would include two principal features:

First, a provision for flexible debentures to be applied according to each commodity situation and second, a surplus control clause to provide automatic reduction in the debenture rate based on the increase in production of any commodity.

Under the former, the minimum debenture would be equivalent to no allowance at all and the maximum would be the tariff duty on the commodity concerned. Under the latter provision, production increases would be judged by the average acreage over five years.

MEXICAN PROPOSAL TO PAN AMERICANS APPROVED BY BODY

Would Not Force Diplomats in Washington to Carry on Union Efforts

HAVANA, Jan. 27. (AP)—One of the Mexican proposals for reorganization of the Pan-American union's governing board in Washington, attacked last week as revolutionary and aggressive, received today the unanimous approval of the conference committee on Pan-American union. The proposal approved is that which suggests governments be allowed to designate any citizen as a representative of the governing board instead of confining representation to diplomats at Washington as now.

Members of the union committee today voted for optional double representation in Washington on the part of their governments—the regular diplomatic representation at the department of state and the new and special representation at the Pan-American union headquarters.

Under the new arrangement the diplomat may assume the extra duties of Pan-American union governing board, as has been the case in the past, if his government so wills. It is not mandatory, however, that he do so if his government should desire to name some other to the governing board's post, restricting the diplomat to his usual duties.

Bolivian Problem Charles Evans Hughes, leader of the American delegation, aligned himself with general opinion as to granting the Mexican proposals. In a brief statement he said that the American republics could have entire freedom in selecting representatives for the Pan-American union governing board and that the Washington government would appreciate nothing more than to have possible the aviator.

EX-MOOSE CHAPLIN IS DEAD AT MOOSEHAVEN

AURORA, Ill. Jan. 27. (AP)—The Rev. Charles A. Alden, a former chaplain at Mooseheart, Ill., where the Loyal Order of Moose maintains an industrial school and home for children of deceased members of the order, is dead at Moosehaven, Fla., an announcement reaching here today said.

Rev. Alden was a former superintendent of the Illinois Universalist convention and secretary of the national council of superintendents. He held pastorates at Aurora, Ill., Galesburg, Ill., and Columbus, O., and was business manager of the University of Omaha. His widow survives. Burial will be at Schenectady, N. Y.

D. T. HEIMLICH NAMED TO STATE OFFICE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. Jan. 27. (AP)—The southern division of the Illinois state poultry association will hold its 1928-29 show and convention in Carbondale, Ill., it was voted tonight.

Officers of the state association were re-elected at the thirty-fifth annual exhibition and meeting here today as follows: Lyle W. Pank, Carle, president; D. T. Heimlich, Jacksonville, vice-president; A. D. Smith, Quincy, secretary-treasurer; F. L. Platt, Chicago, again was named chairman of district vice-presidents.

EXPLOSION OF TWELVE GASOLINE TANKS FATAL TO ONE MAN IN TEXAS

SENATE QUILTS WEEK'S WORK; GROUPS BUSY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—The spectacle of the house creating itself to a three day week-end vacation for lack of a definite job, aroused senate envy today and it decided to knock off Saturday itself. Congress will be out of session tomorrow except for its committee work.

There was plenty of that today, even for some house members. The senate, however, devoted itself to the merchant marine policy bill and rolled wordily toward its anticipated declaration, in the face of white house frowns, for continued government ownership and operation of cargo and passenger craft.

By way of good measure, the senate also used administration plans for a non-congressional inquiry into the S-4 tragedy and the whole subject of safety of submarines.

Back at the merchant marine debate after this interlude, the senate wrangled for nearly an hour in reaching an agreement to vote on the bill late Monday.

Wary of Debate A tilt between Neely, Democrat, West Virginia, and Curtis, the Republican leader over the West Virginian's desire to be heard on what he called the Borch "licker" question, held things up awhile. Then Bruce of Maryland decided his proposal to bring all the government shipping folks except executive officials and deck hands under civil service rules might not get completely aired in (Continued on Page Four)

LAST MINUTE STAYS GRANTED TWO MEN; ONE PAYS FOR DEED

Appeal in Federal Court Saves Pair From Rope in Louisiana

LAKE CHARLES, La. Jan. 27. (AP)—Only one of the three men who were to hang in Louisiana today went to the gallows as scheduled, the other two being granted an indefinite stay of execution through a decision of Attorney General Percy Saint that an appeal filed in their behalf in the United States circuit court of appeals superseded any action the state might have ordered taken.

The decision was announced 40 minutes before Molton Brasseaux and Joe Genna, the condemned men were to mount the gallows to hang for the murder in 1926 of J. B. Breville, a Deridder taxi driver.

The hangings were to take place at Deridder in the adjoining parish of Beauregard. All arrangements had been completed for the executions.

Attorneys fighting for the life of Byron Dunn, convicted slayer of Deputy Sheriff Sam Dubon, near the Dunn home at Vinton, in Calcasieu parish were not successful in last minute appeals and Dunn was hanged here at 2:52 p. m. Three hours previously Dunn's attorneys had sought an injunction from Judge Jerry Cline in district court, contending Governor O. H. Simpson was without authority in ordering the execution after it had once been postponed to await action of the federal court, which was refused.

Dunn, after being taken into custody with his brother, Robert, walked to the gallows protesting his innocence to the last. Robert Dunn was to hang with his brother, but his sentence was commuted to life imprisonment by Governor Simpson last June.

WISCONSIN PRAISES WORK OF AL SMITH

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 27. (AP)—Shunting into the background state problems, which called them into special session, Wisconsin's legislature today concerned itself with national problems, and more particularly with two prominent Smiths.

In paradoxical fashion, the Republican legislature extolled the progressive administration of the Democratic governor of New York state, and praised the senate for refusing to seat one of its own party-Senator Frank L. Smith of Illinois.

In non-partisan spirit, the assembly passed by a vote of 42-19 a resolution offered by M. J. Mersch, one of the three Democratic members of the house, a resolution praising Gov. Smith of the splendid progressive administration which he has given the state of New York.

KAISER BILL ENJOYS SIXTY-NINTH BIRTHDAY

Doorn, Holland, Jan. 27. (AP)—Ex-Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany celebrated his birthday in quiet fashion today.

A black and white banner of the Hohenzollerns waved above the castle here in honor of the day. There were guests assembled and many flowers were received from all over Europe. But there was little else to mark the day for what it was, the one-time emperor's sixty-ninth anniversary.

Wilhelm this evening had as guests various Dutch officials and members of the surrounding nobility. Luncheon was served only to the family circle and the day for what it was, the one-time emperor's sixty-ninth anniversary.

General Jovintin, sub-general under General Figueroa, commanding officer at Ixtlan, led the Mexican federal forces in battle. Blocker said that the government has thrown thousands of troops into the bandit infested region of Nayarit in an effort to rid the state of rebels.

General Zertuche, commanding the federalists at Acaponeta, led his force in two engagements against rebels last week.

One engagement was fought at San Diego, a small town on the Durango-Nayarit border. Many died in the fighting.

General Espinosa is in command of federal forces operating between Acaponeta and Tepic. His troops are combating that region for bandits. Blocker's report said that when bandits are found, no quarter is given.

The American consul said that hundreds of bandits were roaming the state of Nayarit, formed in small bands.

M'ANDREW RAPS RAH RAH LOYALTY IN TALK

NOLINE, Ill. Jan. 27. (AP)—Judgment of the public school rather than service, a number of jokes at Mayor William H. Thompson and condemnation of rah, rah patriotism were contained in a management address to a management address to Chicago public schools.

Taking as his subject "You and the U. S. A.," McAndrews devoted the greater part of his address to censuring the present methods of teaching patriotism in the schools.

The Chicago superintendent declared the patriotic songs, including America, and the pledge of allegiance to the American flag were not understood by one-tenth of the children who recite them daily. "No wonder then," Chicago got the kind of mayor we have," he said.

"When we start teaching service to the community and nation, then we will have the real brand of patriotism, not flag waving," McAndrews declared. "Then the public schools will be performing the function which Washington, Jefferson and other great statesmen in founding them, meant that they should."

In presenting the speaker, L. A. Mahoney, Noline superintendent of schools, called McAndrews one of the foremost educators in the nation, who has done much to promote genuine patriotism in the United States.

FRIDAY THE 13TH HAS NO WORRIES FOR CLUB

LONDON, Jan. 27. (AP)—Friday, January 13 was the day chosen by the "Thirteen Club" for its new year banquet at which 13 guests sat down. They lived up to their reputation of not being superstitious and passed to their places under a ladder.

In the room there was to be seen: A bat, owl, one of which had light green eyes, robins on a tray, broken glass on the tables, crossed knives, a horseshoe turned upside-down and peacock feathers.

Any of these things would make the ordinary superstitious person ill for weeks.

DAMAGE MAY BE MILLIONS IN PROPERTY

Colonnade Of Flames Lights Two Year Old Oil Town

MCCAMEY, Texas, Jan. 27. (AP)—Relieved that what had been feared was a holocaust had taken relatively slight toll of life, the 6,000 inhabitants of this two year old oil town took a holiday tonight as the light of a colonnade of flames surrounded by a mile high wall of smoke from 12 burning oil tanks of the Humble Oil & Refining company.

The tanks were ignited this afternoon by an explosion. Out of a hundred men working on the property only one, Fred Heudricka, chemist, was known to have been killed, although property damage may reach half a million dollars.

The blast, which started in tank No. 15, under process of being steam-cleaned, rocked buildings half a mile away and spread successively to eleven other tanks, ranging in capacity from 500 to 3,000 barrels, most of which were burning long after dark. Several workers were reported injured when thrown to the ground by the force of the explosion, but in most cases the injuries were of minor nature.

McCarney is situated in a semi-arid country of nearly flat country and the big blaze was visible for twenty miles. It's giant glare (Continued on Page Four)

DEFENSE ATTORNEYS SCORE IN SINCLAIR FALL CRIMINAL CASE

Force Witness to Admit Irregularities in His Accounts

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—Fighting with their backs to the wall government counsel today saw defense attorneys slow-break down the testimony of W. J. McMullin, whose story the prosecutors had expected would go far toward convicting Harry F. Sinclair, Wm. J. Burns and their associates of criminal contempt for the shadowing of the Fall-Sinclair oil conspiracy jury.

CO-ED ECONOMIC DEFENDENCE
A startling incident occurred on the campus of Columbia University. Men student, one known, have been asked to pay for their own dinners and sodas. The women have watched the "ditch" system grow with considerable alarm and have at last decided to rebel against it. The worst offenders have formed a club the members of which swear not to open their purses when out with college men.

"How can a poor college girl on an allowance be expected to pay?" they ask pitifully. To which one might answer, "How can the poor college boy, on an allowance or earning his own way thru school, be expected to pay for two?"

"When mother was a girl," the rebels continue, "a man was willing to make any sacrifice, but now days they talk about economic independence and the right to vote. Now what has that to do with who shall pay for a hot fudge sundae?"

It is a big question, in which one is inclined to agree with the old man who always found that there was right on both sides of an argument.

If the Columbia situation exists in the other educational colleges and universities scattered thruout this broad and prosperous land, more will be heard of it. And if the argument about who's to pay too hot it will no doubt extend beyond the colleges, and we shall hear stenographers and floor-walkers thrashing out the problem of economic independence in relation to theater tickets and taxi fares.

Well, may the right prevail!

INTERESTING WEATHER

Dr. C. P. Marvin, head of the United States Weather Bureau, has prepared a warning to business men. He urges them to be wary, not of weather, but of the good-bye weather prophets who are almost always at their mischievous work of forecasting day things about the weather as much as a year in advance.

It is an odd thing about these long-range, amateur weather forecasts that they always forecast the worst. You never hear of

The worst offenders have formed a club the members of which swear not to open their purses when out with college men.

"How can a poor college girl on an allowance be expected to pay?" they ask pitifully. To which one might answer, "How can the poor college boy, on an allowance or earning his own way thru school, be expected to pay for two?"

"When mother was a girl," the rebels continue, "a man was willing to make any sacrifice, but now days they talk about economic independence and the right to vote. Now what has that to do with who shall pay for a hot fudge sundae?"

It is a big question, in which one is inclined to agree with the old man who always found that there was right on both sides of an argument.

If the Columbia situation exists in the other educational colleges and universities scattered thruout this broad and prosperous land, more will be heard of it. And if the argument about who's to pay too hot it will no doubt extend beyond the colleges, and we shall hear stenographers and floor-walkers thrashing out the problem of economic independence in relation to theater tickets and taxi fares.

Well, may the right prevail!

INTERESTING WEATHER

Dr. C. P. Marvin, head of the United States Weather Bureau, has prepared a warning to business men. He urges them to be wary, not of weather, but of the good-bye weather prophets who are almost always at their mischievous work of forecasting day things about the weather as much as a year in advance.

It is an odd thing about these long-range, amateur weather forecasts that they always forecast the worst. You never hear of

BLUFFS WOMAN IS AWARDED JUDGMENT

The case of Mrs. Helen Linker against the Wabash Railroad Company for damages in connection with the death of her husband, Elmer Linker, was tried in St. Louis before a jury and resulted in a judgment for $15,000 in favor of Mrs. Linker.

The case grows out of the death of Elmer and Harry Linker, of Bluffs, who were killed while assisting in railing coal cars which had jumped the track near Neelyville. The Linker brothers were employed in the car repair department and had been called to Neelyville Sunday morning to help with the wreck and they met their death when the car on which they were working became overbalanced and went into the ditch, burying the men beneath tons of coal. It is believed that death resulted almost instantly.

The double tragedy occurred just inside Morgan county, and Governor C. S. Young held the inquest. The case was tried in St. Louis by agreement, that being the main office of the company. Herman Munds, foreman of the court department, Supervisor A. V. Pyle, Engineer P. L. George, Superintendent L. W. Karnes, George Adams and the train crew, who were all present at the time of the accident, were in St. Louis as witnesses in the case.

The case of Mrs. Zela Linker against the Wabash Company is expected to come up next month, it being a similar action for the death of Harry Linker.

It was announced the Wabash company would appeal the case to a higher court.

Bluffs
Bluffs, Jan. 27.—The Sewing Circle of the M. P. church held an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Lee Morris, south of town, Wednesday.

George Matthews of Beardstown spent a few days last week with his sister Mrs. J. B. Little and family. Mrs. Ella McGeeble was confined to her home the first of the week on account of illness. Her daughter, Vera, cared for her.

Ruthanne Botterbusch of the Ridge district has been out of school for the past week on account of illness. Mrs. Mary Schneider of Wood River and Mrs. Kathleen Sieper of Quincy were called here by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. E. J. Smith who is suffering from an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldo Herman and daughter Norma of Arzoville and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Beckwood and daughter Eleanor were Bluffs visitors Sunday.

E. W. Cravell, agriculture teacher is conducting a special six weeks course in agriculture at the school building. Much interest is being manifested in the work.

Students in the community high school have completed their semester exams which were held during the past week.

TODAY'S TALK

By George Mathew Adams.

THE RETURN TICKET

So many people in this life purchase tickets which take them to their destinations but make no provisions for the return journey.

Life is a round trip affair. Statistics show that less than five per cent of people who fail after they are 50 are ever able to recoup their fortunes and rise again to their former state.

At 50 a man's powers should be at their ripest and ablest. It is at that age that he should be able to lessen his pace and gather the harvest of his life's work, should be the result of his years of saving, hard work, saving and prudent living.

The return ticket in life is that comfort, freedom from worry, and reasonable reserve, which you have deservedly won for all your years of preparation and thrift, both in mind, body and purse.

The world traveler, the collector of art, or of books, the one who has left his business desk and glory for some form of public service—each is enjoying the fruits and glory that result from the purchase in advance of the return ticket.

The trip back is so often filled with beauty and with instance and circumstances of happiness that the journey out did not give. Any traveler can testify to the truth of this statement.

In another sense, each Nation has its record of unusual men and women whose return tickets were not used until they had passed from human warmth and appreciation. Then, in the silence of posterity's eternal movement, they returned over the mistaken judgment of little minds, to a deathless fame.

At such times I am of the opinion that God is the Conductor who holds the tickets of noble souls until they have been purely purged, then He calls to his passenger to take his turn "stage" because the folks back home want to see his face again.

Churches
Centenary Methodist—Francis E. Smith, minister. Church school meets at 9:30. Albert C. Metcalf, superintendent. Morning worship 10:15. Sermon subject by the pastor is "The Married Vessel." Plans are not complete for special music at the beginning of the morning service, but at the close a song which beautifully expresses the thought of the text and sermon will be sung by Miss Aurora Wedgell. The title of this song is, "Have Thine Own Way, Lord."

Sermon story subject for the Junior church is, "Choosing Associates." This story will be told by Mr. Grantham, who with his wife is superintendent of the work with the Juniors.

CO-ED ECONOMIC DEFENDENCE
A startling incident occurred on the campus of Columbia University. Men student, one known, have been asked to pay for their own dinners and sodas. The women have watched the "ditch" system grow with considerable alarm and have at last decided to rebel against it. The worst offenders have formed a club the members of which swear

Waverly Defeated By Ashland; Semi- Finals In Morning

Games This Morning:
10 o'clock—Ashland vs. Beardstown.

11 o'clock—Virden vs. Bath.

Ashland, Jan. 27 (Special).—Ashland, Beardstown, Virden and Bath will fight it out Saturday morning for the right to enter the finals in Ashland's Sixth annual invitational basketball tournament. These four teams surviving after twelve games of basketball. Waverly, Morgan county's hope, went into the discard when Ashland covered Andrews, Waverly leading scorer, and trounced them 23 to 14 to win their way into the semi-finals of their own tournament.

Following the demise of Waverly, Ashland became favored to come thru to the finals, but will have a difficult job in taking care of Beardstown in the first game Saturday morning. Beardstown, a dark horse, has been playing along steadily upsetting its rivals and will give Ashland plenty of opposition tomorrow.

The finals will be played Saturday night, the first game being called for 7:30 at which time the losers of the two morning games will meet for third place and the second game scheduled for 8:30 when the championship will be decided.

Large crowds, which are always present at the Ashland tournament, continued to throng the gymnasium for all sessions today. The Ashland high school band, under the direction of J. W. Chadwick, of Jacksonville, made its debut at the tournament today and added color to the scene.

Night Games
Allowing most of the Waverly team to run wild, but keeping Capt. Andrews under cover for the entire game, Ashland-high school won its way into the semi-finals by defeating the Morgan county team 23 to 14. Ashland was unable to get a field goal during the evening. Waverly led at the end of the first period 5 to 3 but had dropped back to an 8 to 7 advantage after the second period. Ashland wheeled out to the front in the third period which ended 16 to 13 and completely stopped Waverly in the final period.

Bath's thrilling rally in the last quarter of their game with Waverly, for the right to enter the semi-finals, was one of the high spots of the evening. Bath finally winning out 14 to 10. Greenwood led 5 to 1 at the end of the first quarter, 6 to 3 at the end of the first half and 10 to 7 at the end of the third quarter, but Bath's offense began working when they seemed to be kicking. They passed the starting Greenwood team on their way to the semi-finals.

Virden dropped Chandlerville 15 to 10 in a hard fought through game, Virden leading all the way to the finish. Virden was out in front 3 to 2 at the end of the first quarter, 8 to 7 at the end of the first half and 10 to 7 at the end of the third quarter, but Bath's offense began working when they seemed to be kicking. They passed the starting Greenwood team on their way to the semi-finals.

Morning Session.
The hearts of the Ashland populace were in their mouths during the first game of the morning session. Ashland's hopes to win the tournament going to pot until Douglas, of Ashland, came thru in the final minute with a basket and nosed out Tallula 16 to 15. Tallula put up a stern battle, leading at the end of the first quarter by one point 5 to 4 and trailing by one point at the end of the first half 8 to 7. The score was knotted at the end of the third quarter 10 all. With Douglas' field basket settling the game in the last minute.

Bath and Greenwood had comparatively easy sledding in going thru their first games, Bath eliminating Pleasant Plains 28 to 14 and Greenwood trouncing Franklin 17 to 8. Both teams led all the way through the game.

Chandlerville showed class by defeating Virginia 28 to 14, the second carrying the major portion of the Chandlerville class. Chandlerville took a lead in the beginning and was never headed.

Virden dropped Pawnee in class style, 28 to 10, after taking a 9 to 4 lead at the end of the first quarter and a 19 to 4 lead at the end of the first half.

Beardstown's drive for the championship carried them thru the determined Modesto team, the river city outfit winning its second round game 20 to 15 battle which was nip and tuck all the way through. Beardstown led a slender margin lead at the end of each period.

"FAN BREEZES"

All mysteries should be unmythified. All mysteries should be clarified and explained; yes, they should even be solved. Although I know it sounds foolish, why can't we have a probe-senatorial or Sherlock-like into that recent mysterious mystery? I refer to the PILFERED PHOTO OF THE DELIGHTFUL DUKE, "Breezes", I demand an inquiry.

As usual, Tennessee Ten, I wrote this myself, T. T.

Well, our star reporter is back on the job.

Listen, Tennessee, don't let this Piper guy tell you anything about this case, but get hot on the trail of the missing photo.

The Piper tried the third degree on a couple of suspects yesterday evening, but when they said they didn't take the picture he returned with the statement that the suspects were unsuspected now.

Yuh know, Ten, we can't believe a guy like that. Why he actually believes those suspects didn't take the picture.

But anyway, dear readers, we received our picture of the Illinois coach and you will find him some place on the sport page.

Gosh, but we've got John in a meal of a mess.

You see, John hails from Waverly and now Mr. Smith thinks that John has declared that Jacksonville girls are more beautiful than Waverly girls.

Mr. Smith, on our word of honor, John didn't have a thing to do with it. But we'll have to tell you privately the reason he gave for claiming that we like the paprikas better than the pepperettes—which ain't true.

But to get down to business.

There is going to be considerable basketball around town tonight. "Pinky" Barlow, Illinois college ticket taker, field agent, asked us to tell the fans that one ticket entitles fans who visit the I. S. D. gym tonight, to one basketball game.

In other words, if you want to see both games, buy two tickets at the door and sit down on the west side of the gym.

If you want to see the Tiger-Wichester games, arrive before eight o'clock, the preliminary begins at seven, and purchase but one ticket, and sit down on the east side of the gymnasium.

If you want to see the college games only, take your time about getting out there, because tickets will not be on sale and no admittance will be allowed until 8:45.

Mitchell isn't having any trouble about the seating and ticket selling plans for his game with Alton tonight, but he is figuring on having plenty of trouble bringing home the bacon.

Tomorrow we hope to have something to report about the missing photo.

WASHINGTON U. WINS
St. Louis, Jan. 27 (AP).—Washington University defeated Kansas University 35 to 28 here tonight in a Missouri Valley conference game. The Bears played a fast game were able thus to average a defeat suffered earlier in the season at Lawrence at the hands of the Jayhawks.

HILLTOPPERS TO MEET EUREKA FIVE TONIGHT

Game Will Be Called at 9:00 O'clock on Illinois School for Deaf Floor—Hard Game Is in Prospect For Locals.

With the Illinois college basketball team hitting a fast pace, they will run into one of the toughest snags on their schedule here tonight when they meet the Eureka Red Devils, conquerors of Carthage, on the Illinois School for the Deaf floor at nine o'clock.

In view of the fact that two games will be played between the Illinois School for the Deaf and Winchester preceding the game between the two colleges, special plans have been made to care for the game receipts. Those wishing to see the Deaf team will purchase one ticket at the door and will be seated on the west side. The east side will be cleared after the first two games and the spectators allowed to sit wherever they choose. Tickets for the college game only will not be sold before 8:45.

Eureka college will present one of the strongest teams which the locals have met this season, for they have defeated two teams which the locals have also defeated. Eureka hung up a long victory over Illinois State Normal and defeated Carthage 33 to 26.

The hilltoppers took a light workout in basket shooting last night, along with some work on plays, and Coach Diwoky pronounced them ready for the game.

Illinois will probably start Miller and Goldsby, forwards; Newkirk, center; Schuster and Bunch, guards.

YOUTH HAS EASY TIME IN FLORIDA TOURNEY

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. Jan. 27. (AP)—Jack Catell, 17 years old, of Jacksonville, Fla., had a field day in the Florida golf tournament today, winning his way into the finals at the expense of a more seasoned opponent and later swamping another veteran in a play-off for the tournament qualifying medal.

Eddie Connor, of St. Augustine, fell before the Jacksonville youth's steady play, four and three in the semi-final round, while Harold Weber, of Toledo, Ohio, was his victim in the medal play-off, securing an 81 to Catell's 72.

Catell tomorrow will meet Joe Capo, of St. Augustine, for the championship by virtue of the latter's victory in the other semi-final match today over Van Culer, of Dunham Ferry, Pa., four and three.

LOTT MEETS SHIELDS IN TENNIS FINALS

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 27. (AP)—George M. Lott, Jr., of Chicago, defending champion, and Frank Shields, of New York, will meet tomorrow in the singles final of the Canadian indoor tennis championships.

Lott advanced into the titular round by vanquishing Perry L. Kynaston of New York in a hard fought struggle by 2-6, 6-4, 8-6, 6-1 in the semi-finals play today. Shields qualified by a victory over Jack Wright, of Montreal, 2-6, 6-2, 1-6, 9-7, 6-4.

CAMPUS ROMANCE ENDS

Chicago, Jan. 27. (AP)—The campus romance between Wallace Wesley Melvin, former University of Illinois football player, and Jenn Reay, daughter of William M. Reay, controller of the International Harvester company, that led to an elopement while both were students at the university ended today when Mrs. Melvin filed suit for divorce.

Mrs. Melvin charges cruelty. They were married at Danville.

WOULD STOP COLLEGE MEETS FOR NATIONS

NEW YORK, Jan. 27. (AP)—An agreement with British authorities to eliminate international intercollegiate competition in Olympic years will be sought in London by Gustavus T. Kirby after he has finished his duties as American delegate to the Olympic winter sports in Switzerland next month.

Such an agreement would prevent the projected trip to England of a team of Dartmouth college hurdlers this year, or the participation of any British college stars in the Pennsylvania relay carnival.

At the same time, Mr. Kirby will discuss a proposal to have an international intercollegiate meet at the conclusion of the Olympic games in Los Angeles in 1932.

WINCHESTER BAPTISTS BEAT HOWITZERS 28-20

The Winchester Baptists basketball team defeated the Howitzers at Armory Hall last night by a score of 28 to 20.

The game was fast throughout, the Winchester lads having a slight advantage in long shooting.

The following men composed the lineup: Winchester Baptists—K. Sturgeon, E. Taylor, C. Priest, G. Sturgeon and M. Smith.

Howitzers—J. R. Smith, Elbert Trubbs, Wayne Lewis, Clyde Christensen and Herbert Dods-worth.

Priest of Winchester and Hanson of Jacksonville were the officials.

SPEAKER NOT WANTED

New York, Jan. 27. (AP)—The New York Giants are "not interested" in Tris Speaker, gray-haired veteran of many a bitter American League campaign, Jim Tierney, secretary of that club, asserted today, thus apparently disposing of the reports that Speaker might appear in a Giant uniform next season.

The Boston Red Sox, the Philadelphia Athletics, and the Montreal club in the International League, also have been mentioned as being in the market for Speaker, whose unconditional release by the Washington Senators, is effective Feb. 1.

MAROON GUARD HURT

Chicago, Jan. 27. (AP)—Chuck Hoewer, captain and guard on the University of Chicago's basketball team, may be out of the Maroon lineup at the Minnesota-Chicago game tomorrow night. He is suffering from an infected arm.

That the attorneys in the case themselves were not wholly certain of the legal status of the jury was evidenced in the statement by Keyes that he did not consider his make-up definitely settled, while on the other hand Walsh insisted it had been.

Most of the jurors so far accepted are residents of Los Angeles, two or three gave addresses in suburban districts. All three of the women jurors gave their occupations as housewives. Six of the male jurors and two of the women were gray haired, creating a courtroom picture of age sitting in judgment over youth.

The defendant started the day by turning the program of his legal advisers inside out.

Following the trail of their client's insanity plea, the defense lawyers had told him he would not be called to the witness box. In an ante-court conference, the prisoner informed his attorneys that he would take the stand, whether they liked it or not, and tell his story of the killing of Marian Parker.

Jerome Walsh and Richard Cantillon of defense counsel, told Hickman his decision would seriously injure their plans in his behalf, but the confessed slayer defied them to keep him from telling his story under oath.

Illustrated every corner of the town.

From a levee which confined the blaze to the ignited tanks it was impossible to see anything but a billow of yellow and orange flame shooting upward into a sea of boiling black, with an occasional glimpse of the red hot metal of a twisted 3,000 barrel tank.

Hendricks, the man known to have been killed, was on top of Tank No. 15, when it exploded, having just lifted a hatch to make a test. His body was hurled some thirty feet into the air and fell back into the flames. It had not been recovered tonight.

The only theory advanced to account for the explosion was that a spark had been struck in the opening or closing of the test hole by Hendricks, igniting the gas in the tank.

FORMER HUSBAND OF MOVIE ACTRESS DEAD

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27. (AP)—Wallace McCutcheon, 45, former husband of Pearl White, movie actress, was found dead in his home here today. He had been shot in the head with a bullet from a small calibre revolver.

McCutcheon, said to be prominent in Long Island, N. Y., social circles, left a note scribbled on the label of a liquor bottle, which read "have a drink."

The weapon with which McCutcheon shot himself, according to police, was found a few feet from the body.

In his pocket police found an address book containing the names of several score of prominent movie actors and actresses together with telephone numbers.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Wallace McCutcheon, 45, an actor, former husband of Pearl White, motion picture actress, who was reported found dead in his home in Los Angeles with a bullet through his head, was a major in the British army during the World war.

The house committee on Mississippi flood control kept going despite the recess and showed signs of being able to stem the flow of argument the administration flood curbing plan has let loose.

There was time "on the hill" during the day, however, for one successful congressional gesture. It was in the form of a resolution approved by the house military committee to spend up to $5,000,000 next year in order that the Gold Star Mothers of America's World War dead might see as honored guests of the American people the battlefields in France and the cemeteries where many a gallant son is sleeping time away.

IBANEZ NEAR DEATH

Mentone, France, Jan. 27. (AP)—Vicente Blasco Ibanez, the noted Spanish writer, whose death was thought to be close at hand today, was pronounced slightly better tonight. He is still gravely ill, but the doctors, after their latest visit, considered that there was no immediate danger. The 67-year-old man shortly before midnight, promising to issue another bulletin tomorrow morning.

Young Hill was unusually quiet today after the strain of his appearance on the witness stand yesterday. He startled the crowd at the previous day's session by setting up, during a short lull, and walking across the room to get a drink of water. It was the first time he had been seen to make himself at all conspicuous for he never even stands up while court is in session.

Prosecutor in Fury

What appeared to be painfully faulted memory on the part of two witnesses, Dr. George E. Mason, Streator dentist, and his office assistant, Mrs. Letha Branz, handicapped the prosecution.

"I don't know," "I can't remember," "I'm not sure," and "I can't say," marked their testimony with "Special Prosecutor A. J. O'Connor almost in a fury as he threw the questions at them.

Dr. Mason previously at the coroner's inquest, had identified false teeth found in the Hill home as those made by him. Today he said he was unable to identify them or the form on which they rested, as having been made by him or coming from his office. Miss Branz also could not identify the teeth as having belonged to Mrs. Hill. State's Attorney Russell O. Hansen said he did not regard the identification as especially important as they had already been identified as belonging to Mrs. Hill.

This morning's meeting, although ending with manifest cordiality among all the delegates, opened with the injection in the session of one of the most puzzling Latin-American problems, Bolivia's aspirations to an outlet to the sea.

Jose Antezana, Bolivian delegate, warned the committee that the establishment of continental peace always will be ephemeral" long as Bolivia's problem is unsettled. DEBENTURE IS EXPLAINED BY MICHIGAN MAN

The Little Money

"It is the simplest but most effective plan yet evolved," said Ketcham, "and requires a comparatively insignificant appropriation to finance the little administrative work involved."

The new plan which is similar to that sponsored by Representative Jones, Democrat, Texas, has been endorsed by Louis J. Taber, master of the National Grange, on behalf of his organization. Explaining it, Taber said that it is an arrangement "whereby importers of certain agricultural products receive from the treasury certificates having a face value established by congress and intended to represent the difference in costs of production here and abroad, such certificates being negotiable and good for their face value in the payment of import tariffs on any goods later imported."

Anderson, who was chairman of the joint congressional commission agricultural inquiry in 1921 and 1922, directed his argument at the agricultural committee hearing against the equalization fee provision in the McNary-Haugen bill.

Although defections from the McNary-Haugen ranks on the most part have been announced to be on the ground of political expediency, Anderson's opposition to the fee rested on what he termed to be its uneconomic aspects and its unworkability.

He approved settlement of the farm problem by legislation, and sanctioned an agency similar to the proposed federal farm board, but said its activities should be limited to organizing and financing agencies to control production and should not be of a commercial or price-fixing nature. The former Minnesota representative attributed to Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, the idea that agricultural needs could be handled by methods similar to those used in the federal reserve banking system, and agreed to an extent, provided that no price fixing would be attempted.

TESTIMONY OF BOY IS TAKEN IN HILL CASE

The defense contention was that statements were rung from the defendant by brutal methods. Ketcham was permitted to testify as to any alleged tortures or as to Mrs. Hill's will in which she left Harry $50,000.

The Spirit of St. Louis was discerned first as a gray speck coming through a bank of white fleecy clouds at a great height. Lindbergh flew low, as if to examine the field, then ascended and disappeared in the distance. A few minutes later he appeared over Bogota, which he circled a number of times before landing.

From the landing field he proceeded to the capital, and his entry was wonderful, the Colombians according him an ovation which few other men have enjoyed.

Driving in an open car, Colonel Lindbergh went by way of the Avenida Colon to the American legation. Countless streamers floated in the air in his honor. Dobota's principal streets were crowded by 100,000 persons, and an escort of cavalry and a thousand or more automobiles heaped to make the parade a notable one.

tions, General Jadwin returned to the committee room to review his flood control plan which was recommended to congress by President Coolidge. There was no sign of friction.

Two members of the house, Rathbone, of Illinois, and Johnson, of Indiana, both Republicans, urged that the Illinois and Wabash rivers be included in a national flood plan.

Before the senate committee, the Jadwin plan was criticized by Lucius F. Berthe, engineer of the St. Francis levee district of Missouri. He said that the project does not provide for the safety of Cairo, Ill., urging raising of the levees rather than construction of floodways.

SMUGGLING FIRMS IN CANADA SAYS REPORT

OTTAWA, Jan. 27. (AP)—Liquor export firms in Canada, exist almost without exception for the purpose of smuggling to the United States, according to a report of the Royal commission customs and excise which recommended in a report today the cancellation of customs bonds held by the firms.

The report, offered the house of commons today after 14 months of public hearings in every province of Canada, stated "smuggling has been greatly facilitated by individuals, firms and corporations carrying on business in certain provinces of Canada as exporters of liquor."

No amendment to the Anti-smuggling treaty between Canada and the United States, the report stated, would be necessary if provisions of the report are carried out.

REMUS COMES TO AID OF GUARD AT INSANE

LIMA, O., Jan. 27. (AP)—George Remus, former bootlegging king and now an inmate of the Lima hospital for the criminal insane, today came to the rescue of two guards who were having trouble with an unruly inmate.

As the guards, John Robinson and W. J. Morgan, were taking a negro through the grounds he resisted them and gave Morgan a cruel pummeling. Remus came running to the scene of combat. He engaged the big negro and completely subdued him before other aid arrived.

Morgan was not seriously hurt, but hospital officials confined the negro to a padded cell.

A model inmate and popular with other members of his ward, Remus has entered into life at the institution with resignation to its life. Dr. W. H. Vorban, superintendent, said.

SENTENCE KENTUCKIAN FOR VOTE TAMPERING

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 27. (AP)—James A. Wallace, millionaire coal and timber man of Irvine, Ky., was found guilty today in Franklin circuit court here today of vote tampering and sentenced to serve a total of 12 and a half years in the state penitentiary. He was given two and a half years on each of five counts.

Wallace's attorney, Leslie W. Morris, filed a motion for a new trial, but was overruled by Judge Ben G. Williams. Morris indicated the case would be appealed. Wallace was released on a $10,000 bond.

Wallace, former state treasurer, was specifically charged with altering returns from five counties in his race for state auditor in the Republican primary of last year.

MODISH MITZI

Uses The Power of Suggestion.

By Jay V. Jay

This is an appeal to Mitzi's heart. The writer of the letter says she has always been a wallflower. She's tired of being ineffective. Is it, she wonders, because her evening gowns aren't smart? Is it because she isn't sure they are smart?

Could a wallflower wear this gown with its tight bodice and panel front of rhinestone studded lace—and still be a wallflower. The tiers and tiers in bouffant style make the gown noticeable and the lady noticed. There's a lot in selecting a costume to fit the scenery.

If it is, Mitzi is going to give her some advice that will remedy the situation. Could any one be overlooked in a flowered taffeta with this very full skirt and the flaring about the hips? It's new enough to be startling, chic enough to be daring, yet conservative enough to be in perfect taste.

And, for the first and last impression, there is the dark blue evening wrap covered with silver stars. Mitzi hopes these styles will help the problem of the writer of the letter who signs herself "Wallflower." Those who wish to know more about effective (and new) evening gowns write Mitzi in care of this paper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

THE BIG DANCE
AUTO INN, TONIGHT

HOLD TWO AS SUSPECTS IN THEFT OF AUTO

James Ball and Jack Mellie are prisoners at the city lockup, held as suspects in the theft of the Chrysler roadster, owned by Miss Helen Clark of this city and stolen from its parking place on North Main street Wednesday evening while Miss Clark was attending the Illinois Theatre.

The police were furnished with information that Ball and Mellie were seen driving the Chrysler roadster toward Springfield Wednesday night. According to the officers, their informant said that he had seen Ball and Mellie working around the car near Bates, after it had left the hard road and run into a ditch. The police also say that they have information that the two men being held purchased gasoline at a filling station between Jacksonville and Springfield.

Ball and Mellie were arrested yesterday afternoon on East Morton avenue, and were brought to the station for questioning. Both men deny having had anything to do with the theft of the automobile.

While the police have notified officers in several nearby cities, and a reward has been offered, the missing car had not been found last night.

No trace had been found last night of the Ford Sedan belonging to E. D. Swann, 397 Hardin avenue, which was stolen near the court house about 5 o'clock Thursday evening.

THE "CANARY" MURDER CASE

CHARACTERS

PHILO VANCE, Attorney of New York County.
MARGARET ODELL (THE "CANARY"), a man-about-town.
KENNETH SPOTSWOOD, a manufacturer.
LOUIS MANNIX, an importer.
DR. AMBROSE LINDQUIST, a fashionable neurologist.
TONY SKEEL, a professional burglar.
WILLIAM ELMER JESSUP, telephone operator.
HARRY SPIVELY, telephone operator.
ERNEST HEATH, Sergeant of the Homicide Bureau.

THE STORY THUS FAR
Vance's theory is that two unknown persons were in the "canary" apartment on that fatal evening, one locked in a clothes closet, the other the man who strangled Margaret Odell. The murder is the most baffling one Vance ever has encountered. In no way can they account for the presence of anyone in the girl's apartment. The door to the alley was bolted on the inside and the man who had gone out with Margaret Odell the night before had been the only one to be seen with her, and circumstances completely eliminated him.

CHAPTER XII

HEATH sought consolation in a new line of thought.

"Anyway," he submitted, "we know that the fancy fellow with the patent-leather pumps who called here last night at half past nine was probably Odell's lover, and was grafting on her."

"And in just what recondite way does that obvious fact help to roll the clouds away?" asked Vance.

"Nearly every modern Bellah has an avowed amoroso. It would be rather singular if there wasn't such a chap in the offing, what?"

"That's all right, too," returned Heath. "But I'll tell you something, Mr. Vance, that maybe you don't know. The men that these girls lose their heads over are generally crooks of some kind—professional criminals, you understand."

"You're convinced then," asked Vance mildly, "that this job, as you call it, was done by a professional criminal?"

Heath was almost contemptuous in his reply. "Didn't the guy wear gloves, and use a jimmy? It was a yeggman's job all right."

(Tuesday, Sept. 11; 11:45 a. m.)
Markham went to the window and stood, his hands behind him, looking down into the little paved rear yard. After several minutes he turned slowly.

"The situation, as I see it," he said, "bells down to this—The Odell girl has an engagement for dinner and the theater with a man of some distinction. He calls for her a little after seven, and they go out together. At eleven o'clock they return. He goes with her into her apartment and remains half an hour."

"He leaves at half past eleven and asks the phone operator to call him a taxi. While he is waiting the girl screams and calls for help, and, in response to his inquiries she tells him nothing is wrong and bids him go away. The taxi arrives, and he departs in it. Ten minutes later someone telephones her, and a man answers from her apartment. This morning she is found murdered, and the apartment ransacked."

"He took a long draw on his cigar. 'Now, it is obvious that when she and her escort returned last night, there was another man in this place somewhere; and it is also obvious that the girl was alive after her escort had departed. Therefore, we must conclude that

"There's not much getting away from 'em," agreed Heath.

"At any rate, they're interested in," murmured Vance.

Markham, walking up and down earnestly, continued:

"The features of the situation revolving round these infernal facts are as follows: There was no one hiding in the apartment at seven o'clock—the hour the maid went home. Therefore, the murderer entered the apartment later."

"First, then, let us consider the side door. At six o'clock—an hour before the maid's departure—the janitor bolted it on the inside, and both operators disavow emphatically that they went near it. Moreover, you, Sergeant, found it bolted this morning. Hence, we may assume that the door was bolted on the inside all night, and that no body could have entered that way. Consequently, we are driven to the inevitable alternative that the murderer entered by the front door."

"Now, let us consider this other "You've demonstrated that no one could have entered or departed from this apartment last night. And yet it's not exactly tenable, d'ye see, that the lady strangled herself?"

the man who was already in the apartment was the person who murdered her.

"This conclusion is further corroborated by Doctor 'Brenner's' report that the crime occurred between eleven and twelve. But since her escort did not leave till half past eleven, and spoke with her after that time, we can put the actual hour of the murder as between half past eleven and midnight. . . . These are the infernal facts from the evidence thus far adduced."

"Add to all this the fact that every window on this floor is barred, and that no one from upstairs can descend into the main hall without coming face to face with the operator, and we are, for the moment, confronted with an impasse."

Heath scratched his head and laughed mirthlessly.

"It don't make sense, does it, sir?"

"What about the next apartment?" asked Vance, "the one with the door facing the rear passageway—No. 2, I think?"

Heath turned to him patronizingly. "I looked into that the first thing this morning. Apartment No. 2 is occupied by a single woman; and I woke her up at eight o'clock and searched the place. Nothing there. Anyway, you have to walk past the switchboard to reach her apartment the same as you do to reach this one; and no body called on her or left her apartment last night."

NEW YORK STOCKS

Violent advance of 5 1/2 to nearly 15 points in about a dozen top specialties featured the resumption of the upward movement in today's stock market. The urgent retreat of an over-extended short interest undoubtedly accelerated the rise in these shares.
Call money renewed at 4 per cent and then advanced to 4 1/2 as banks called about $30,000,000 in loans, presumably for out-of-town account.
Montana Power continued its sensational rise by soaring 1 1/2 points to a new high record at 148 1/2. A. M. Byers jumped 1 1/2 points to a new peak at 117 1/2, on buying influenced by expectations of increased earnings through the recently installed Ashton process. Savage Arms jumped more than 4 points to a new top at 75.
American Linseed common and preferred, Greene Cananea Copper, Peoples Gas, F. G. Shattuck, Sloss-Sheffield Steel, Standard Milling and Vanadium Corporation all sold 5 to 8 points above yesterday's final quotations. New peak prices since 1926, or longer, also were established by Loews,
International Nickel, Westinghouse Air Brake (new), American Ice (new), National Power &
Light and several others.
There were a few soft spots scattered through the industrial list. National Bellas Hess broke 8 5/8 points to 55 1/8, closing at the bottom. Gabriel Snubbers and Pathe A sank to new low levels for a year or more.
In the rail group, Illinois Central common advanced fractionally to a new high since 1914 at 144 1/4 and then dropped to 140
1/2, while the preferred climbed 6 points to a new high record for all time at 144.

BOND PRICES STEADY DESPITE TIGHT MONEY

Bond prices held fairly steady today despite a tightening in the money and bankers' acceptance rates. Hesitancy also was induced by the continued liquidation of federal reserve holdings of government securities, aggregating more than $175,000,000 in the past three weeks. Although the New York Federal Reserve Bank maintained its rediscount rate at 4 1/2 percent for another week at least, a little more uncertainty was created by the increase to 4 percent in the Richmond rate, closely following a similar raise by the Chicago Bank.

Prominent railway bonds generally were a bit lower, although there were a few outstanding exceptions, such as Chesapeake corporate 5s and Rock Island 4 1/2s. A few industrial issues also followed a firm trend, including Goodyear 5s, Dodge Brothers 6s and Armour 5 1/2s.

CHICAGO BUTTER

CHICAGO, Jan. 27 (AP)—Butter today ruled steady at unchanged prices. Trading in a few quarters was slow, as buyers were holding off. Although supplies of fancy butter showed a slight accumulation, receivers were quite firm in their asking price. The centralized market ruled steady with trade spotted. Best demand was for fresh 89 cans, and late in the day these were rather closely cleaned up.

BIGGER EXPORTS OF CORN LIFTS PRICES

CHICAGO, Jan. 27. (AP)— Bigger export business in corn lifted prices today both for corn and wheat. Advances were in the face of heavy speculative selling of corn future deliveries and notwithstanding predictions of very large receipts of corn in Chicago on Monday.
Closing quotations on corn were firm, 1-2c to 5-8 to 3-4c net higher, with wheat 1-8c to 1-2c up, oats unchanged to 1-4c off, and provisions varying from 2c decline to a rise of 7c.

Some estimates of today's corn export business were as high as 1,000,000 bushels, but the generally accepted figures were 650, 000 to 750,000 bushels. Another decided stimulus for a more friendly feeling as to corn values came from an official statement that 60 percent of all the Kansas corn which will be sold has already been shipped. Meanwhile corn export demand today at the Gulf of Mexico was much improved and the trading basis was up about 1c a bushel from early yesterday, reaching 6 1/4c over Chicago May.

Counting sharply however, at times against price upturns in the corn trade as a whole was the fact that low grades of cash corn developed weakness here, the trading basis on such grades being 2c off in some cases. Moreover, there was a good deal of talk about increased consignments from Iowa, and it was said that the country in general appeared to be getting to arrive. Primary receipts of corn in the United States today were 2,215,000 bushels, against 1,046,000 bushels a week ago, and 1,160,000 bushels one year back. Contrasting with this was a report that Argentine farmers are scraping their bins but that nevertheless corn receipts at the Argentine seaboard were very small.
Wheat owed its advance today chiefly to corn strength and to Paris advices that winter killing of the French wheat crop has been extensive. Oats trade lacked snap.

Provisions tended downward at first, but afterward recovered owing to the upward trend of corn values and of hogs.

STIFF MONEY RATES CHECKS CURB MARKET

NEW YORK, Jan. 27. (AP)— Sudden stiffening of money rates put a decided check on bullish activities in the curb market today. Utilities again were strong, trading in three issues accounting for a large proportion of today's business. Industrials were irregular, leaders in the recent rise showing slight gains and attracting most of the buying.
Northern Power, Northern Ohio Power and Electric Bond and Share were most active among the utilities. Lehigh touched a new high of 27 5/8, but later lost its gain on profit-taking sales.
Southern Ohio Power touched a new high at 24 1/2 and Electric Bond and Share was up 4 1/2 points to a new high at 86 3/4.
Electric investors followed the trend to new high ground at 45 1-2.

In the Industrials Royal Baking Powder gained 4 more points.
Ohio Brass B touched a new high at 97 5/8 and Newport company rose another 3 points to a new high at 144.
Vacuum, Standard of Ohio and International Petroleum were virtually the only active oil stocks.
Vacuum gained about 2 points, and the others slightly. Southern and Illinois Pipe Lines led their group with small advances.

Chicago Grain
CHICAGO, Jan. 27 (AP)—U.
S. Department of Agriculture—
Cash wheat trade only fair. Demand continues good. Receipts estimated at only 11 cars. Trading basis 1c better on red grades and steady to 1-2c up on hard.
Spring uncontracted. Local sales, 35,000 bu and for the week as compiled by Raymond, 27,337 bu.
Sea-board estimated export sales

ROTARY CLUB HEARS TALK BY NATURALIST

Dan McCowan Gives Interesting Address at Meeting of Clubmen Friday.

Dan McCowan, naturalist, of Philadelphia, Penn., who spends most of his time in the Canadian Rockies, was the speaker at the Rotary club luncheon Friday afternoon.

Mr. McCowan delivered an interesting illustrated lecture on "A Naturalist in the Rockies."

The speaker was sent to Jacksonville by the Bureau of Commercial Economics at Washington. Earlier in the day he spoke at the Illinois Woman's College.

The speaker thoroughly understood his subject as was shown by the fact that he showed 150 pictures in thirty minutes, giving an explanation of each view.

Mr. McCowan together with his wife spends much time in the Canadian Rockies. He is a lover of the great outdoors and has made a complete study of animals, birds and flowers. Instead of hunting the animals and birds with a gun, he has chosen to shoot with the camera.

The speaker recalled many strange incidents in connection with his travels in the wilds of the Rockies. He said that although he had spent more than twenty years in his work, he had never seen cougar or mountain lion in the woods, but had to go to a zoo in order to get some photographs of this animal. He said, however, that he had received many reports from tourists that they had seen numerous lions in their travels thru the hills.

He described to the members the big horned sheep, which is covered with hair instead of wool. The case with the domestic sheep. Mr. McCowan said that the Rocky Mountain goat was the surest footed animal he had observed during the years he has studied animal life. He said that while the big horned sheep was sure of foot, it was much slower in negotiating the steep mountains, than was true of the mountain goat.

The speaker told the members that it was no easy task to obtain some of the pictures and at times proved exceedingly dangerous. He told of one incident where he was making an effort to obtain a photograph of the nest of a hawk. While seated in a tree, camera in hand, ready to shoot the picture, the mother owl struck him a terrific blow in the head, knocking him from a fir tree and cutting a deep gash in his head. He, however, returned to the spot the following day and was able with the aid of Mrs. McCowan to get a splendid picture of the nest.

The lecturer showed many beautiful pictures of high mountains, glaciers, lakes and many high peaks and strange valleys. He also showed on the canvass many beautiful pictures of flowers, the coloring of which was done by his wife.

The lecture was one of the most pleasing given before the Jacksonville club.

Governor E. B. Hillman of the 44th district of Rotary International made the club a visit yesterday. His mission was to call the members attention to the district meeting of Rotary which will be held in Quincy next May.

Ernest McKay, manager of the Rotary volleyball team told the members that the Rotary team had won its first game in league series and would play the Kiwanis Club next Wednesday night.

Barnett S. Finley, chairman of the boys work committee said that plans had been completed for the newboys meeting which will be held next Friday, February 3. At this time the club members will have as their guests more than 70 newboys of Jacksonville.

The guests of the club yesterday were John C. Buelton, C. E. Wood, W. D. Doying, Robert Frisch and Homer Potter of Jacksonville and F. H. Spencer of Springfield.

INSTALLMENT BUYING DISCUSSED AT MEETING

Professor H. D. Wolfe Gives Interesting Address at Meeting of League of Women Voters on "Installment Buying in Relation to Living Costs."

The Jacksonville branch of the League of Women Voters held its January meeting yesterday afternoon at the Illinois Woman's college, with Prof. H. D. Wolfe of the afternoon. His subject was "Installment Buying in Relation to Living Costs."

Prof. Wolfe said that in essence there is not much difference between installment buying and regular buying. What credit is and does give a background to consider. Credit means that there must be confidence that the individual will pay if he can, and second that he can pay if he will. It has been used in business relations as far back as records have been kept. The speaker divided credit into two divisions; producers and consumers credit. He illustrated by saying a farmer has no plow to till his soil, and plant his seed. Some one advances him the plow for six months, and in no time he can add wealth to the community. That is producers credit. On the other hand if he already has the plow and wanted a radio, and someone advanced the latter to him, there is nothing in it to attribute to wealth, as the plow did. That is consumers credit.

The speaker said that we have heard a lot about installment buying in the last ten years, but it has been in existence for some time. Homes have been built and are built on the installment plan thru the savings and loan associations. In 1807 it really started in our country. A lady came back from France telling about furniture being sold on the installment plan, and now we have insurance, sewing machines and the harvesters selling on the installment plan. It isn't anything new, so why all the agitation in these past few years? Many people who do not believe in it say that it tends to make spendthrifts.

Auto Industry.

Prof. Wolfe said that from 1915 until just recently when the building of closed cars became an industry, in the spring and summer the demand for cars were few and the plant equipment would stand idle. If cars could be moved off steadily thruout the year, the plant would not lose so much money. From 1915 to 1920 the sale of cars did not go fast but maintained a steady growth, until 1920 when sales expanded rapidly.

The speaker said the total retail sales on the installment plan amount to eight billion dollars. In 1925 seventy-five per cent of the automobiles were sold on the installment plan; 90 per cent of the pianos; 75 per cent of the radios, 85 per cent of the vacuum cleaners, 95 per cent of the washing machines, 90 per cent of the sewing machines, and 90 per cent of the gas stoves.

There has been no other development in every day life that has excited so much interest among business men and students as the question of installment buying. It is often asked should it be encouraged or discouraged. Some reasons for it are that it makes paying easy, the individual can enjoy his purchases while paying for them and it gives more people employment. It is also argued against the installment plan is that it runs persons into debt, causes extravagance and isn't fair to the people who pay cash.

Prof. Wolfe then took up what effect it had on the individual, business and credit conditions. The individual often can not pay his grocery bill because he has to pay on his automobile, however, Prof. Wolfe feels it is going to make the individual thrifty instead of being a spendthrift. It tends to make him keep a budget.

A suggested schedule was offered by R. B. Pearce, secretary of the historical society, by presenting a time card dated September 28, 1863, when the road was operated between Petersburg and White Hall, there being one train per day except Sunday, connection being made with stage at White Hall for Carrollton, Jerseyville and Alton, and with the Great Western railroad at Jacksonville. The running time from Petersburg to White Hall was six hours, with Jacksonville in the center. Mr. Charleston requested that the relic be reproduced in a number of copies for his use.

John Hayes Dies

John Hayes is dead in Chicago, according to a telegram received here Thursday morning. It is thought that his death was sudden, as no word had been received that he was ill, and a personal letter was received by Robert E. Shaw a few days ago that gave no such evidence. The telegram was from E. M. Nagle, 515 South Kedzie Avenue, Chicago, a grand son of the late Michael Kiernan, an early resident of White Hall.

Hayes was about 65 years of age, and was a native of Winchester, although the family grew up at White Hall, and here John attended the public school. He left White Hall in 1878, and has since returned at intervals, being here

HOLD R. R. CONFERENCE IN GREENE COUNTY

White Hall, Jan. 27.—A railroad conference was held Thursday afternoon in the Community Service rooms. The gathering was called by the presence of a group of C. & A. officials, who had spent the morning at Jerseyville and Carrollton. They went on into Roadhouse for noon lunch, and were brought to White Hall by automobile by Trainmaster W. B. Hultt for meeting the business people of White Hall at 2:30. The officials consisted of George J. Carlton, passenger traffic manager; A. P. Titus, chief operating official; and S. P. Henderson, general superintendent.

The object was to obtain the reaction to the changed time of trains on this part of the Tonic line of the C. & A. The questions and answers were conducive to full understanding. Mr. Titus seeks to regain the milk business for the C. & A., and was assured of the friendliness of the milk interests from the remarks of J. C. Spencer, president of the Illinois Condensed Milk Co. Mayor J. H. Piper assured the officials that no objection to the present arrangement is entertained by him, and that he will give his sanction to it regarding our railroad interests akin to any other community interest.
